MCCORMICK

McCormick emerged in modern times from the Scotch name MacCormaig as well as from the Irish clan McCormaic. In each country the clan founder was a brave battle leader called Cormaic, meaning "Charioteer" (Driver of a war chariot.) The clan shield is red, emblazoned with three red spots between three silver daggers, all on a chevron. The clan Motto Sines Gimore, translates as "without fear."

FOREWORD

We are indebted to Frances McCormick Harrington and Esther McCormick for much of the following information pertaining to the ancestry of the McCormicks. They wrote a McCormick family history entitled The McCormick Family Story, pub. 1978 in which they referred to their own recollections as well as to historians of an earlier time.

According to tradition, this McCormick branch is of Scot-Irish ancestry. Their people having first lived in Scotland, then for a number of years in the north of Ireland, finally coming to America in 1734.

Some evidence exists that early McCormicks lived on the Island of Mull, a forbidding spot of land on the bleak coast of Scotland. A map shows this island to be directly north of Ireland. Thus a boat trip from this area to the Province of Ulster, area of Antrim, Northern Ireland, where the McCormicks lived for at least three generations would be no hardship.

In Scotland, the McCormicks are a sept of the clain Maclain of Lockbuie. They are eligible to wear the Maclain clan crest badge and the Maclain tartan. The great Scottish clans contain septs. They bear a different surname but are descended from the chief through the female line.

The early McCormicks lived in a period of great religious unrest, clan wars, and failure of crops. It is most likely that a combination of these events caused them to move to the north part of Ireland, now designated Northern Ireland.

HUGH MCCORMICK, born in 1570, is the first McCormick of record. The move to Northern Ireland had been made earlier, as Hugh lived in the Province of Ulster, area of Antrim, in a little community with the Scotts names of Dunmakeleter. Hugh was the father of Thomas and the grandfather of James.

THOMAS MCCORMICK, son of Hugh McCormick, lived in the Province of Ulster, area of Antrim, in the north part of Ireland.

JAMES MCCORMICK, son of Thomas, was a captain and sturdy fighter, who made a name for himself in the Seige of Londonderry, Northern Ireland. Londonderry was a stronghold of Protestantism against James II, who tried to restore Catholicism in England. James II was defeated, then William and Mary took the throne.

Shortly after the the famous siege, on July 29, 1689, James Mcormick was one of the signers of "The Humble Address of the Governor, Officers, Clergy, and other gentleman in the city and garrison of Londonderry" to William and Mary.

It is said that no genealogy has ever been written which was free from error and this probably applies to this one. Every effort has been made to record names and dates that were given us, and any errors that may occur are regretable and but the product of an oversight along the way.

THOMAS

AND

ELIZABETH CARRUTH MCCORMICK

OF NORTHERN IRELAND, LANCASTER AND CUMBERLAND COUNTIES, PENNSYLVANIA

THOMAS AND ELIZABETH CARRUTH MCCORMICK

1st Gen. THOMAS MCCORMICK, the son of James McCormick, was the first of this family to emigrate to America. He and his family and Thomas's brother, Hugh, born in 1697, arrived through the port of Philadelphia in 1735. They settled in Lancaster County, Pennsylvaia.

At the time of their arrival, Lancaster County was very large and encompassed what are now several other counties, including Cumberland County.

Thomas McCormick, born in 1702 in the Province of Ulster, area of Antrim, Northern Ireland, died in 1762, aged 60 years near Carlile in Dillsburg Township, Cumberland County, Pennsylvania.

Thomas was married to ELIZABETH CARRUTH, born in 1705 in the Province of Ulster, area of Antrim, Northern Ireland. Elizabeth died in 1766 in Cumberland County, Pennsylvania, the daughter of Adam Carruth and the sister of Walter Carruth.

In 1745, Thomas and his family were living on a limestone farm of 200 acres in Dillsburg Township, Cumberland County, Pennsylvania. Although Pennsylvania was settled very early, this area was a western frontier and they most probably lived in a log cabin. While fencing in land, sowing and reaping crops, Thomas and his sons had to be on the lookout for hostile bands of Indians.

From the marriage of Thomas and Elizabeth (Carruth) McCormick, six children were born. The first four were born in Northern Ireland.

1. Thomas McCormick, Jr., born in 1729, died in 1778, mar. Jean Oliver in 1756.
2. James McCormick II, named for his paternal grandfather, was born in 1731 and died in 1798. He mar. Mary Oliver.

3. William McCormick, born in 1733, died in 1812, mar. Mary Wiggan, in 1756.
4. Hugh McCormick, born in 1735, died in 1799, mar. Catharine Sanderson in 1767.
5. Robert McCormick, born in 1738 in Pennsylvania died 2 Oct. 1818 in Virginia. Mar. Martha Sanderson in 1770.
6. Elizabeth, born in 1740, died 1767, mar. Matthew Loudon in 1760.

ROBERT

MARTHA SANDERSON MCCORMICK

OF LANCASTER AND CUMBERLAND COUNTIES, PENNSYLVANIA AND ROCKBRIDGE COUNTY, VIRGINIA

ROBERT AND MARTHA SANDERSON MCCORMICK

2nd Gen. ROBERT MCCORMICK, the fifth child of Thomas and Elizabeth (Carruth) McCormick, was born in 1738 in Lancaster, later Cumberland County, Pennsylvania and died 2 Oct. 1818 in Rockbridge County, Virginia.

In 1755, when he was seventeen years of age, Robert settled on a tract of land in the Juniata Valley adjoining land of his brothers, William and Hugh. In 1778, this land was in Fermanaugh Township, later Juniata County, Pennsylvania.

In 1770, Robert was married to MARTHA SANDERSON, born in 1747 in the north part of Ireland in the Province of Ulster and died in 1803 in Rockbridge County, Virginia. Martha was the daughter of George and Catharine (Ross) Sanderson, born in Scotland.

George Sanderson, the son of Alexander Sanderson, moved his family from Scotland to the Province of Ulster, shortly before his youngest daughter, Martha, was born. George emigrated from Northern Ireland to Pennsylvania and settled in Middleton Township. He was an elder in the Old Monehan Meeting House, Dillsburg, Pennsylvania and was active in provincial affairs.

In 1779, Robert McCormick sold his land and moved his family to Rockbridge County, Virginia where he purchased 450 acres and a log house near Midway. The land was situated on both sides of the line dividing Rockbridge and Augusta Counties.

At the outbreak of the Revolutionary War, Robert served from Pennsylvania in the Jersey Campaign of 1776. In 1781, after his move to Virginia, Robert served in the Campaign of Cowpen. He also served in the Virginia Line as a private during the Carolina Campaign under Nathaniel Green and was wounded in action. (1) during the war, took active charge of the plantation and so directed its cultivation and management that apart from the wants of the family, there was large amounts of produce to furnish the commissary purchases of the Patriot Army.

Martha, during the enforced absence of her husband,

Robert was a hardworking, industrious man who was a weaver as well as a farmer. The wide coverlets used in that day were woven by skilled men who had the paience, strength, and mechanical know-how to work out jacquard and other intricate patterns.

He was well versed in the Bible and he served as an elder in the Presbyterian Church. Robert and Martha are buried in the Old Providence burying grounds about two miles from the homestead.

Robert lived to see his grandson, Cyrus Hall McCormick, son of Robert H. and Mary Ann (Hall) McCormick of Walnut Grove, Virginia, complete the reaper.

From the marriage of Robert and Martha (Sanderson) McCormick, six children were born:

1. George Elliott, born 9 May 1771, died 25 Apr. 1849. Mar. in 1797 Jane Steele.
2. Martha, born in (1773?) mar. Edward Bryant.
3. Elizabeth, born (1774?) mar. Hugh Gibson.
4. William, born 12 Apr. 1776, died 17 Apr. 1837 mar. Mary Steele on 3 Feb. 1801.; mar. 2nd Sarah McClelland on 1 Sept. 1807.
5. James, born 7 Jan. 1778, died 28 Aug. 1839. Mar. 1st Irene Rodgers; mar 2nd Rachael Nisewanger; mar 3rd Rachel Clark.
6. Robert H. born 8 June 1780, died 4 July 1846. Mar. Mary Ann Hall on 11 Feb. 1808.

JAMES AND RACHEL CLARK MCCORMICK

3rd Gen. JAMES MCCORMICK, the fifth child of Robert and Martha (Sanderson) McCormick, was born 7 Jan. 1778 in Fernamaugh Township, later Juniata County, Pennsylvania. He was raised in Rockbridge County, Virginia. (Rockbridge County was created in 1778 from Augusta and Botetourt Counties. The county seat is Lexington.

James died 28 Aug. 1839 in West Millgrove, Perry Township, Wood County, Ohio and is buried by his third wife, Rachel Clark McCormick, in the West Millgrove Cemetery. James's son, Robert, was the administrator of his estate (Court of Commom Pleas, Civil Division, Partition, and Estate Settlement, box 60 (1820-1870) Bowling Green University; 5th floor atrchives.)

On 9 Feb. 1804, in Virginia, James was married to IRENE RODGERS, born 9 Mar 1778. Irene died 23 Sept. 1806 in Gallia County, Ohio, the daughter of John and Elizabeth (Blackwood) Rodgers. Martha is buried in Mt. Zion Cemetery, Green Township, Gallia County, Ohio.

Tradition relates that shortly after they were married, James and Irene joined a party of Virginia pioneers and migrated to Ohio. The story relates that they came up the James River; crossed the Allegheny Mountains to the headwaters of the Kanawha River; and then came down the Ohio River to Gallia County, Ohio. The trip would have been about 300 miles. They carried their belongings by boat and wagon; the men riding horses alongside.

James and Martha settled in the partly hilly section of Gallipolis Township. In 1809, this area became Green Township. James put up a log cabin and soon was engaged in farming and milling. The area they lived in was named McCormick, better known as the Fairfield Community.

From the marriage of James and Irene (Rodgers) McCormick, two children were born: Martha McCormick and John Rodgers McCormick.

Before we continue with the children of James and Irene McCormick, we will tell what is known about Irene's family.

Irene was the third child of John and Elizabeth (Blackwood) Rodgers. Her mother died 19 May 1778 when Irene was an infant. In a second marriage, on 5 Jan. 1780, her father was married to Isobel Ireland and they had seven children who were half brothers and sisters to Irene.

John and Elizabeth (Blackwood) Rodgers had the following children:

1. Thomas Rodgers, b. 9 Feb. 1773, mar. 2 Aug. 1802 Christina Russell of Longcroft, Parish of Denny Sterling, North Britian, b. 1784, d. Mar. 1857.
2. Margaret Rodgers, b. 1 Oct. 1776.
3. Irene Rodgers, b. 9 Mar. 1778, d. 23 Sept. 1807 mar. 9 Feb. 1804 James McCormick.

John and Isobel (Ireland) Rodgers had the following children:

1. John Rodgers, Jr., born 22 Jan. 1782; mar. 24 Sept. 1807 Mary Porter.
2. William Rodgers, b. 7 Sept. 1783.
3. Alice Rodgers, b. 3 Mar. 1785.
4. Ariel Rodgers, b. 29 Oct. 1786.
5. Alexander Rodgers, b. 9 Mar. 1788 mar. Peggy Fulton 24 Nov. 1808.
6. Aura Rodgers, b. 10 Dec. 1789.
7. Samuel Rodgers, b. 23 Apr. 1791.

In a second marriage, 29 Dec. 1807, in Gallia County, Ohio by the bride's brother-in-law, John Kerr, Justice of Peace, James was married to RACHAEL NISEWANGER, born 11 Sept. 1785 in Frederick County, Virginia and died 2 Nov. 1826 in Gallia County, Ohio, the daughter of Colonel John and Margaret (Good?) Nisewanger. Rachael is buried in the Mt. Zion Cemetery beside her sister, Sarah (Nisewanger) Mills.

From the marriage of James and Rachael (Nisewanger) McCormick, eight children were born: Harvey McCormick, Robert McCormick, James M. McCcormick, George McCormmick, Margaret McCormick, Christiana McCormick, Elizabeth McCormick, and Sarah McCormick.

Before we continue with the children of James and Rachael Nisewanger) McCormick, we will tell a little about the ancestry of Rachael:

Rachael brought considerable property to her marriage. On 2 Dec. 1804, John Nisewanger the elder and Margaret his wife, of Kyger Township, Gallia County, Ohio (Later Salisbury Township, Meigs County, Ohio) deeded 250 acres of land to Rachael Nisewanger "In consideration of the natural love and affection which we have and also for the sum of one hundred dollars." The land was situated in Gallipolis Township (Later Green Township) on the waters of Chickemauga Creek. (Gallipolis County Deed Bk., Vil II, pg. 76, Nisewanger to Rachel Nisewanger, Rec. Feb. 1805).

Col. John Nisewanger, the father of Rachael, was born 20 Mar. 1742 in Frederick County, Virginia and died 13 July 1821, aged 79 yrs, 3 mo. & 23 days, in Salisbury Township, Meigs County, Ohio.

Col. John Nisewanger was a veteran of Lord Dunmore's War in the Battle of Point Pleasant. He served as a Lieutenant under Capt. Peter Helphinstine (Virginia State Library, Dunmore's War, Romney pay rolls: Misc reel 78, p. 15 (VSL pagination) Nov. 2, 1775, Capt. Peter Helphinstine's roll, including the name of Lieutenant John Nisewanger).

Soon after the Revolutionary War began, John Nisewanger was made captain of the Frederick County Militia for the United States (Virginia State Library Frederick County Order Book 16, 1772-1778, reel 73, pp 426-423). See entry for court session of Sept. 3. 1777 at which Justice Holmes was ordered to administer the Oath of Fidelity to inhabitants of the militia district of Captain Nisewanger and others.

After two years, Capt. Nisewanger was promoted to Major of the Virginia Militititia (Va. State Library; Frederick County Order Bk., 17, reel 73; pages are (236-237). See entry for session of Sept. 7., 1779 in which John Nisewanger took oath as Major in the county militia.

Major John Nisewanger was promoted to Lieutenant Colonel in 1780 and thereafter was affectionately referred to as "Colonel" John Nisewanger (Virginia State Library; Frederick Co. Order Book, 17, pp (312-314), entry for session of May 3, 1780 in which John Nisewanger took oath as Lieutenant Colonel.)

The first Virginia census was taken between 1782 and 1785 and was included in the 1790 First Census of The United States. The Col. John Niswanger household is listed in Frederick County, p. 30, with 7 whites and 1 black. Rachael is not included in the census because she was born in 1785.

About 1765, John Nisewanger was married to MARGARET (GOOD?), born about 1745, probably in Frederick County, Virginia. Margaret died between 1806 and 1809 in Salisbury Township, Gallia County, Ohio.

From the marriage of John and Margaret Nisewanger, six children were born in Frederick County, Virginia:

1. Jacob Niswanger (sic), b. 16 Mar. 1767; d. 7 Dec. 1834 in Tipton County, Tn. Mar. 1st Susannah Wright. They settled in Laurens County, S. Car. Jacob mar. 2nd Caroline Crockett in Tn. 7 July 1832.
2. Susannah Nisewanger, b. 1771; d. 13 Nov. 1845 in in Wyandot County, Ohio. Mar 10 June 1793 Hamilton Kerr/Karr in Marietta, Washington County, North West Territories.
3. Sarah Nisewanger, b. 1772; d. 19 Dec. 1831 in Gallia County, Ohio. mar. Charles Mills 29 Mar. 1795 in Marietta.
4. John Nisewanger, Jr., b. 1777; d. 12 Feb. 1806 after a fall from a horse. Mar. 1st Peggy Coleman 19 Nov. 1797 in Marietta. Mar. 2nd Winney Buck 9 Feb. 1804 in Gallia County, Ohio.
5. Christiana Nisewanger, b. 25 Nov. 1793, d. 26 Apr. 1873 in Gallia County, Ohio. Mar. 8 Mar. 1804 John Kerr in Gallia County, Ohio.
6. Rachael Nisewanger, b. 11 Sept. 1785, d. 2 Nov. 1826 in Gallia County, Ohio. Mar. 29 Dec. 1807 James McCormick in Gallia County, Ohio.

Rachael died when her youngest child was two years old, and in a third marriage on 5 June 1827, James was married to RACHEL CLARK, born in 1776. Rachel died 19 Dec. 1839 in Perry Township, Wood County, Ohio and is buried beside James in the West Millgrove Cemetery.

James was anxious to move to Wood County, Ohio where he intended to build a grist mill. In the spring of 1832, James sent two of his sons, Robert and George, and a Mulatto, named James Brock to Perry Township, Wood County, Ohio to clear up a patch and build a cabin. This they did on a spot where the Indians previously had a camp known as "Snobbletown." (1)

James and Rachel and four other younger children moved to Wood County in Apr. of 1833. James wanted to obtain land with a mill site on it, and the S. W. ¼ sec. 4, was duly entered by him, and James began the building of the mill in 1834.

Beers related in the History of Wood County, Ohio, pub. 1897, pg. 349 that "James McCormick had been engaged in milling near Gallipolis, Ohio. He brought his Racoon buhr with him and immediately went to work building a grist mill in the fall of 1834." In 1897, the Racoon buhr was used as a door stop by a resident in the village of West Millgrove.

The mill was a hewn-log structure and James's son, Robert, who was a blacksmith, made the ironwork. The grist mill was built in Perry Township on the east branch of the Portage and was finished in 1835. James built a sawmill shortly afterward, using logs in the construction.

James McCormick was the founder of West Millgrove, Ohio. The land for West Millgrove was surveyed in November, 1835 by H. Davies for James and Rachel McCorick on the Southwest ¼ of Section 4, Town 3, Range 12. An order to incorporate was made September 4, 1874 and recorded September 30, 1874. (2)

The surveyed land was laid out in several lots. The lots were laid out on McCutchenville road and the road to Fremont. The streets were named Main and Sandusky. James named the town Mill Grove to which has been prefixed West to distinguish it from Mill Grove of Morgan County, Ohio. (3)

PERRY TOWNSHIP

THE survey of the exterior lines was made by Alex and Samuel Holmes in 1819, and that of the interior lines in 1821 by S. Bourne.

This division of the county as set off from the older township of Portage, March 4, 1833, included Townships 3 and 4 in Range 12 and Township 3, in Range 11, or in municipal language, the townships of Perry, Montgomery and Bloom.

West Millgrove was surveyed in November, 1835, by H. Davis for James and Rachel McCormick on the Southwest ¼ of Section 4, Town 3, Range 12. An order to incorporate was made September 4, 1874 and recorded September 30, 1874.

About one mile northeast of West Millgrove is the railroad hamlet called Hatton, which is the shipping point of West Millgrove.

Fostoria now claims a small part of Wood County. Hart's sub-division of part of S. E. ¼ of Section 36, Perry Township was surveyed by Homer C. White in April, and May, 1887 for John O. Hart.

JOSEPH AND MARTHA MCCORMICK WADDELL and their descendants

4th Gen. MARTHA MCCORMICK, named for her paternal grandmother, the first child of James and Irene (Rodgers) McCormick, was born 10 Nov. 1804 in Gallia County, Ohio and died 24 Apr. 1889, age 84y 5m 14d in Mason County, West Virginia.

On 25 July 1824, in Gallia County, Ohio, she was married to JOSEPH WADDELL, twice widowed, born in 1800 in Greenbriar County, Virginia and died 21 May 1877, age 77y 2m 9d in Mason County, West Virginia, the son of Alexander and Eleanor (Rausch/Roush) Waddell, Joseph and Martha are buried in the Adamsville Cemetery, Mason County, West Virginia.

Joseph migrated with his parents from Greenbriar County, Virginia to Gallia County, Ohio in 1817 and they settled in or near Patriot, Perry Township where Joseph was a blacksmith and farmer. Some time after 1850, he moved his family across the Ohio River to Mason County, West Virginia.

Gallia County marriages show that Joseph Waddell was married to SARA WILLIAMS on 10 Oct. 1820. Sara apparently died because Joseph married Sarah Coulter in 1822. Sarah apparently died, then Joseph was married to Martha McCormick. (1)

From this marriage, two children were born: James Alexander Waddell and Irena M. Waddell.

Before we continue with the descendants of Joseph and Martha (McCormick) Waddell, we will tell a little about the ancestry of Joseph beginning with his father.

Alexander Waddell, a weaver by occupation, the son of John Waddell, was born near Glasgow, Scotland in Feb. of 1732. He died Sept. 1834 in or near Patriot, Perry Township, Gallia County, Ohio at the home of his son, Joseph.

Alexander emigrated from Scotland to Virginia in 1755 and settled in Shenandoah County, Virginia. About 1770, he was married to Eleanor Rausch, born in 1752. She died 27 Oct. 1827 in Gallia County, Ohio, the daughter of John Adam and Susannah (Sehler) Rausch of German Ancestry. Eleanor and Alexander are buried in the Hulbert Cemetery.

Shortly after they were married, Alexander and Eleanor moved from Shenandoah County to Augusta County, Virginia, and from there to Pocohantes, later Greenbriar County, Virginia. In 1817, they migrated to Gallia County, Ohio with their son, Joseph, following other children and settled in or near Patriot, Perry Township. Alexander Methodist Church in neighboring Green Township, was named for Alexander Waddell. (2)

Alexander Waddell fought in Lord Dunmore's War in Captain Arbuckle's Company of Scouts at the Battle of Point Pleasant; but the roster of his company has not been preserved.

Alexander Waddell served under General George Washington in the Revolutionary War. He was in the Battle of Guilford Court House and the Battle of Yorktown. (3)

From the marriage of Alexander and Eleanor (Rausch) Waddell, twelve children were born:

5. Joseph, born in 1800, mar. 1st Sara Williams; 2nd Sarah Coulter; 3rd Martha McCormick. Mar all in Gallia County, Ohio.
6. Martha mar. John Barlow.
7. Elizabeth mar. William Sharp 2 Oct. 1798 in Bath County, Ohio.

8. Ann mar. James Sharp 2 Oct. 1798 in Bath County, Virginia.
9. Mary mar. John Gilliland.

11. Jennie mar. Josiah Brown, 12 Sept. 1801 in Bath County, Virginia.
12. Isabella mar. James Boggs 18 Aug. 1797.

We will now return to what is known about the descendants of Joseph and Martha (McCormick) Waddell.

4th Gen. GEORGE MCCORMICK, the fourth child of James and Rachael (Nisewanger) McCormick, was born 10 Jan. 1815 in McCormick, otherwise known as the Fairfield Community, Green Township, Gallia County, Ohio. He died 2 June 1878 in Perry Township, Wood County, Ohio.

George and his older brother, Robert, went to Perry Township in the spring of 1832 with a mulatto named James Brock, preceeding their father by one year. They settled land and built a cabin for their father and later helped him build the first grist mill in Perry Town Township. Before that, the settlers went to Fremont to mill. See page 15.

C. W. Evans related in his Pioneer Scrap Book, pub. 1910, pg 94, that Perry Township was infested with wolves and the forests were literally alive with them and in the winter they were ravenous, attacking every living animal from a chickens to even the settler himself. Settlers used different modes to protect their stock. The steel trap and chain being very effective.

"George McCormick at that time a mere boy, went out one morning to see his trap. and found a very large wolf fast but unhurt. Now as there were some new settlers just come in, George determined they should have a close view of a live wolf. After considerable planning he succeeded in tying the wolf's mouth and feet. He then very coolly strapped him on his back and walked home, a distance of over a mile."

George later acquired his own farm in Perry Township and is listed as a Perry Township, Wood County, Ohio farmer in the 1875 Atlas of Wood County.
